Course #6802

AIR CONDITIONING THE NEW COOL

GOAL: Understand the new refrigerants and the ultra-efficient Systems in today's vehicles, not just the newest vehicles.

With the new start/stop vehicles and hybrid vehicles on the road today, we need to understand how they work and how to diagnose any problems that may occur.

We will discuss updated information about 1234yf and specialized components used on these vehicles.

You will learn about the new SAE J specifications and new tools and equipment required to service these systems.

We will learn about the 609 certification requirements.
